

Revision Checklist

Your name:

Date:

- Outline your essay as it currently stands.

Introduction:

State your attention grabber:

State your thesis:

Body paragraph 1:

State your topic sentence:

Summarize your evidence/examples:

Body paragraph 2:

State your topic sentence:

Summarize your evidence/examples:

Body paragraph 3:

State your topic sentence:

Summarize your evidence/examples:

Body paragraph 4:

State your topic sentence:

Summarize your evidence/examples:

Body paragraph 5:

State your topic sentence:

Summarize your evidence/examples:

Conclusion

Transition word:

How purpose is reemphasized:

- Locate two gaps in the outline where you need to make connections more clear. See “Is the Paper Coherent?” in Chapter 9, Section 2 of your textbook.

1.

2.

- How can I make my essay more organized? List two ideas.

1.

2.

- Where can I add more content? List two ideas. Describe what you might add.

1.

2.

- List 3 to 5 instructions for improvement provided by your instructor on your week 1 practice essay that would also be helpful as you revise your week 3 draft.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

- List 1 to 3 specific suggestions for improvement provided by your peers from your week 3 draft that you wish to address.

1.

2.

3.