Please indicate which tax relief program you would like to apply for:

- Elderly (65 years of age or older as of January 1)

LOW INCOME HOMESTEAD EXCLUSION FOR THE ELDERLY OR TOTALLY AND PERMANENTLY DISABLED (NON-VETERANS)

North Carolina excludes from property taxes the first $25,000 or 50% (whichever is greater) of assessed value for specific real property or manufactured home occupied by the owner as their permanent residence.

To qualify for the exclusion, applicants must meet the following requirements:

1. Applicant must be 65 years of age or older, OR totally and permanently disabled. If not 65 or older and are claiming total and permanent disability, you will need a Certificate of Total and Permanent Disability from a North Carolina physician or governmental agency licensed to practice medicine. You must have a physical or mental impairment that substantially precludes you from obtaining gainful employment and appears reasonably certain to continue without substantial improvement throughout your life.
2. Applicant must be the legal owner listed on the title as of January 1st and must live at residence.
3. Total annual income for the applicant (and their spouse) must not exceed the *annual income ($31,500) limit for this program. Income documentation must be submitted. Income is defined as ALL monies received other than gifts or inheritances from a spouse, ancestor, or descendant. For married applicants residing with their spouse, the income of both spouses must be included; even if only one is listed as the owner of the property.

If you are currently receiving the exclusion, you do not need to reapply unless your permanent residence has changed. However, current recipients are required to notify our office if their income now exceeds the *annual income limit, or if they are no longer totally and permanently disabled, or if the person receiving the exclusion last year became deceased prior to January 1st.

- The person required by law to list the property must notify the Harnett County Tax Department.
- The surviving spouse or joint property owner is required to reapply for the exclusion.

Failure to make any of these notices before June 1st may result in penalties, interest, and the possible loss of the exclusion.

SEE REVERSE FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THE TAX DEFERMENT (CIRCUIT BREAKER) PROGRAM AND LAND USE VALUATION.

PROPERTY TAX DEFERMENT FOR THE ELDERLY OR TOTALLY AND PERMANENTLY DISABLED (CIRCUIT BREAKER) *****

Under this program, annual property taxes are limited to a percentage of the owner's income. For an owner whose income does not exceed the *annual income eligibility limit ($31,500) for the Low Income Homestead Exclusion, the owner's taxes are limited to 4% of their (combined spousal) income. For an owner whose *annual income exceeds the limit but by no more than 150%, which for 2021 is $47,250, the owner's taxes will be limited to 5% of their (combined spousal) income. The taxes exceeding the applicable percentage of the owner's income will then become deferred (postponed) along with interest until a disqualification.

1. To qualify for this deferment (postponement of payment), the applicant must meet the following requirements:

Applicant must be 65 years of age or older, OR totally and permanently disabled. If not 65 or older and are claiming total and permanent disability, you will need a Certificate of Total and Permanent Disability from a North Carolina physician or governmental agency licensed to practice medicine. You must have a physical or mental impairment that substantially precludes you from obtaining gainful employment and appears reasonably certain to continue without substantial improvement throughout your life.

2. Applicant must be the legal owner listed on the title as of January 1st for the last five years.

3. The total *annual income for the applicant (and their spouse) must not exceed the *annual income limit for the Low Income Homestead Exclusion by 150%. Documentation as to the owner's income must be submitted along with the application. Income is defined as ALL monies received other than gifts or inheritances from a spouse, ancestor, or descendant. For married applicants residing with their spouse, the income of both spouses must be included; even if only one is listed as the owner of the property.

4. ALL OWNERS of the property must apply and elect to defer the applicable portion of their taxes.

5. A new application is required annually.

Annual Income Eligibility Limit changes every year. Please contact 910-893-7520 or visit our website at www.harnett.org/tax to obtain the specific income amount applicable.

LAND USE VALUATION

If your land is being used for Horticulture, Agriculture, or Forestry production you may qualify for the Present Use Value program. Basic requirements for Present-Use Value are mandated by the General Assembly under NC General Statute 105-277.3. These requirements include such things as minimum land size, income, sound management plan, and ownership requirements. There are additional ownership requirements for business entities and trusts.

- Horticultural land is required to have at least one parcel of land that has a minimum of 5 acres in active production of fruit, vegetables, nursery or floral products.
- Agricultural land is required to have at least one parcel of land that has a minimum of 10 acres in actual production. Production may include such items as: corn, beans, cotton, tobacco or livestock.
- Forestland must have at least one parcel of land which has a minimum of 20 acres that is actively engaged in the commercial growing of trees under a sound management program. A forest management plan may be secured through the NC Forest Service or a private registered forester may be hired to write a management plan for this parcel.

These programs are voluntary and an initial application must be filed in the county in which the property is located in, during the annual listing period, from January 1 through January 31. All owners of the property must sign an application and provide necessary documentation to be considered for the program. Program participants are subject to audits to ensure that program requirements are being met.

If you have a family member currently in the program and is now deceased, please notify the Tax office immediately so that we may update the necessary information to keep the property in the program.

If you want to learn more about this program, please call the Tax office at 910-893-7520 or email puv@harnett.org.
